DEFIANCE
SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

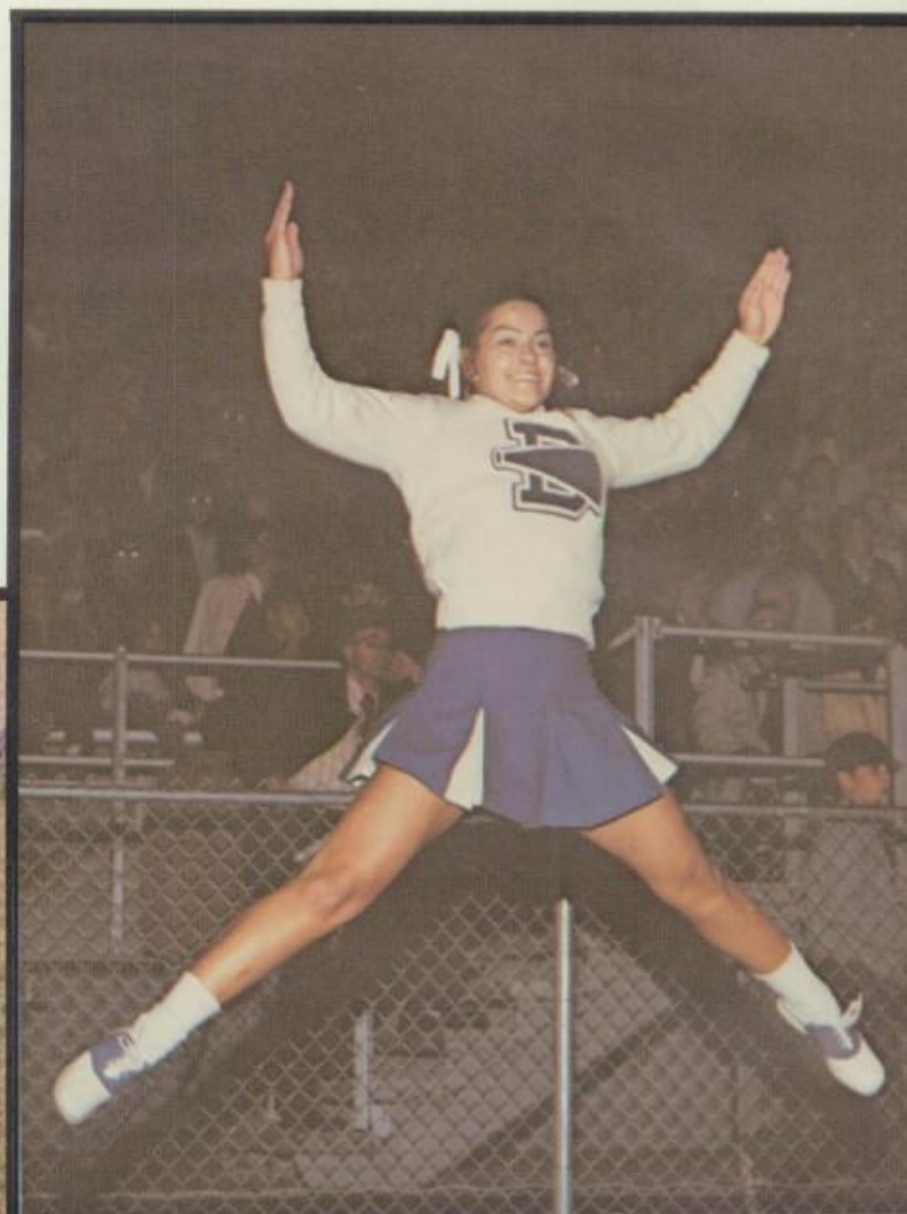

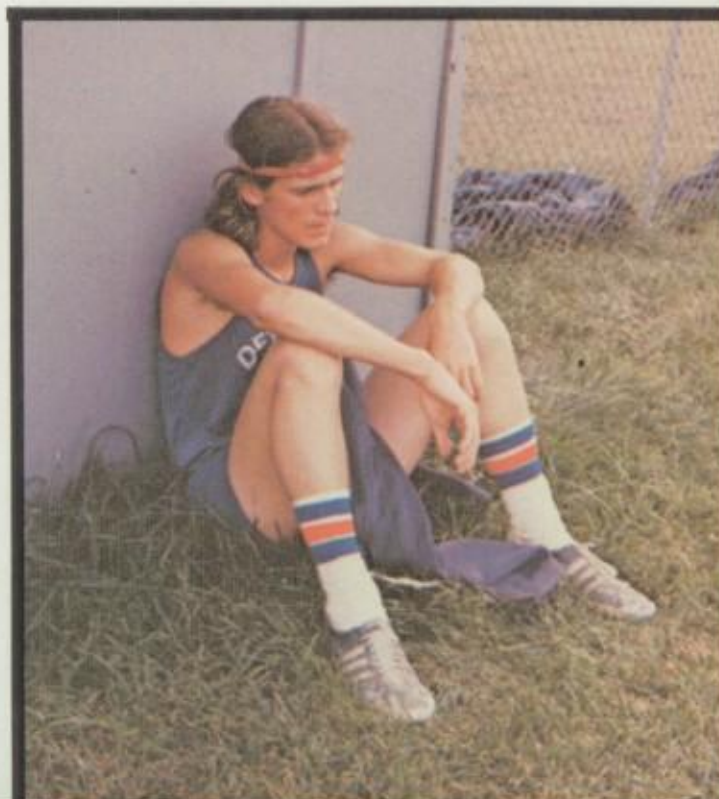

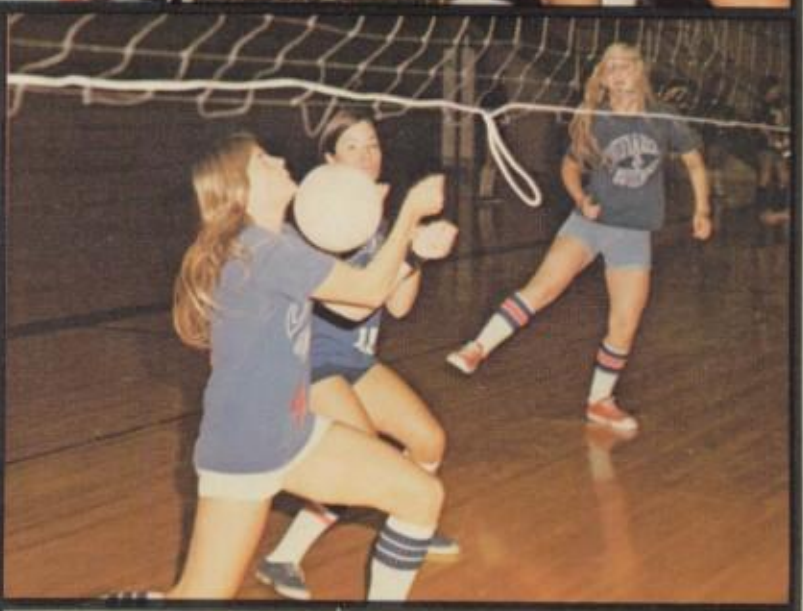

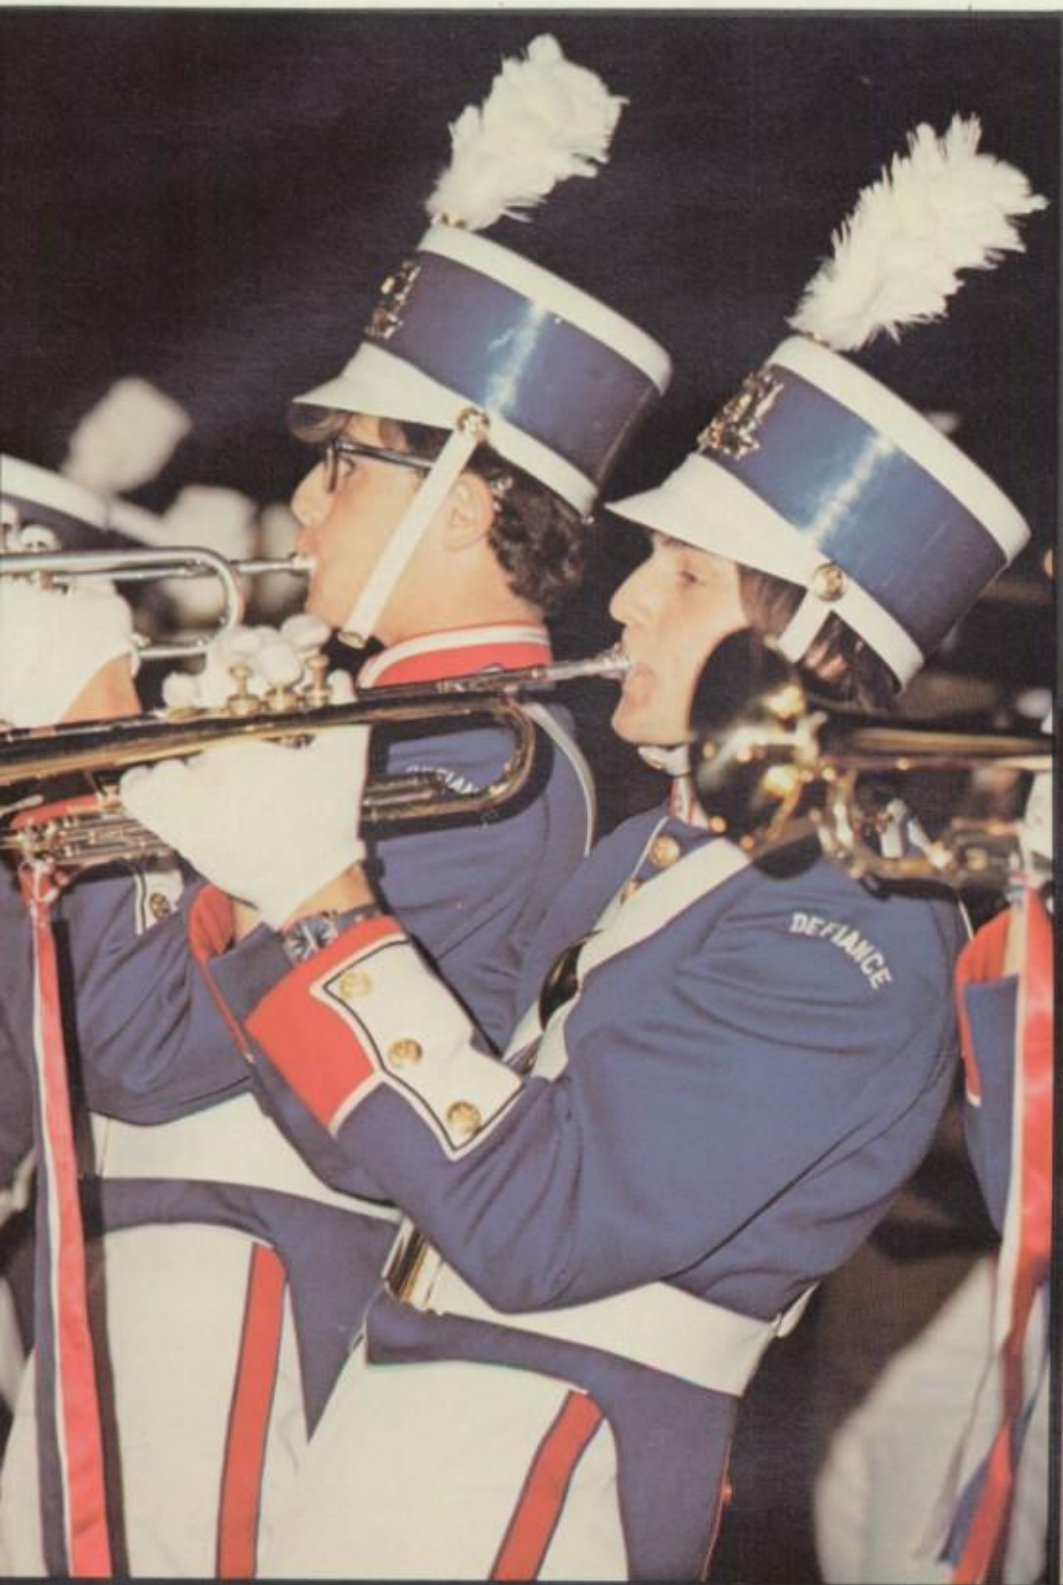

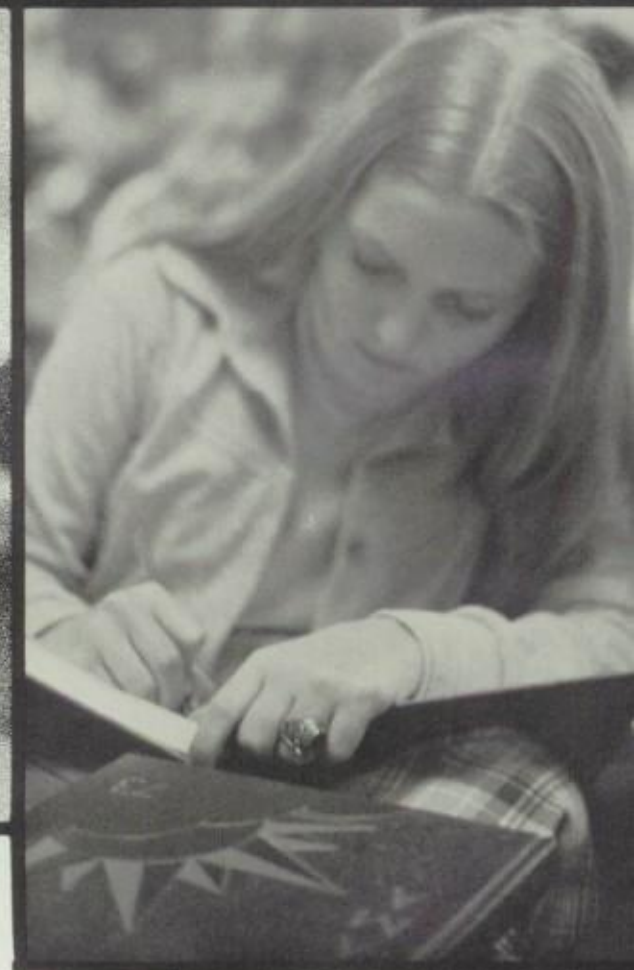

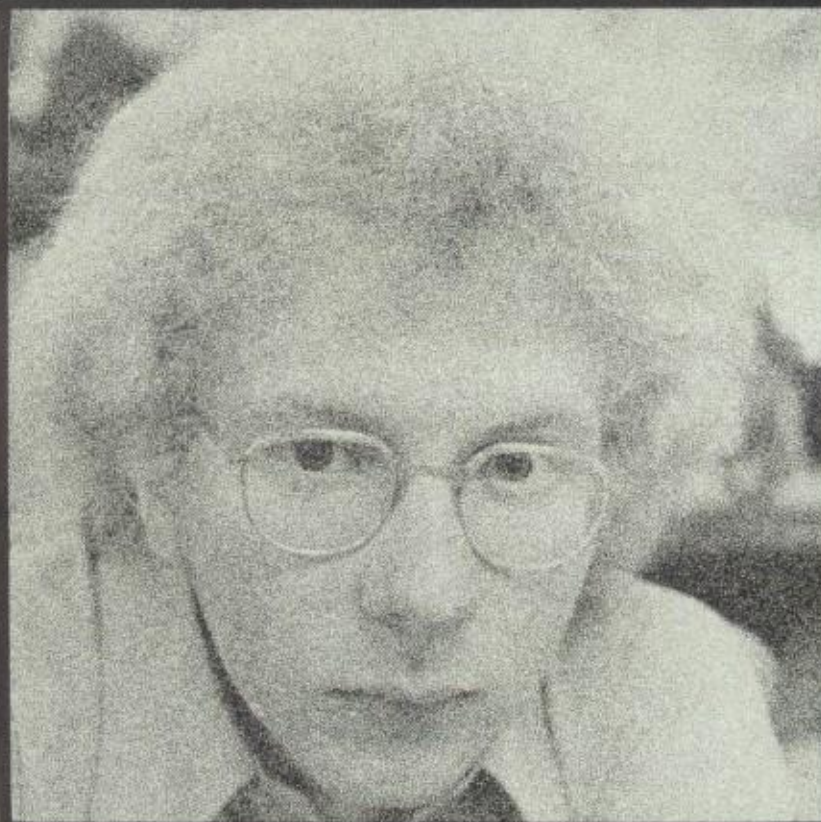

... 1000 individuals living together, seven hours a day, five days a week, are bound to cause conflict. However, at Defiance High School this conflict has been deepened by the formation of tight social cliques ...

These cliques are united within by specific interests, yet they cannot tolerate the special interests uniting others. This lack of tolerance is a key cause of conflict. A jock can't understand why anyone would want to play in the band, while a bandie doesn't understand the thrill of knocking heads in a football game. Making a good appearance at the games is important to a social, but maybe means nothing to a shoppie.

However, other conflicts exist at Defiance High School; between the teacher who hands out heavy assignments and the lazy student, between the conservative administration and a student body which wants more freedom, and between the individualist who is trying to express himself and needs help to find a way.

Conflict is a major contributor to the atmosphere of the school as well as to the personalities of the students. It is born in the need of each student to find his own separate peace, and it matures with each student realizing that this conflict does not limit him, but forces him to realize his own goals ... his own entity ...

ACTIVITIES

STUDENT LIFE

Defiance High School Homecoming '73: It was winning the football game and finding a new outfit; It was the bonfire and hoping to be asked to the dance. It was everything to some, nothing to others. For Kerry and her court it was an unforgettable experience. The week before the dance was spent planning the reception, posing for photographers, and worrying about what they would wear. Coronation night, October 19, finally arrived. The attendants, brushing their hair for the last time, waited to be escorted onto the field while Kerry was still hidden in the empty band truck practicing her speech. From then on everything went as planned. Cindy was escorted by senior Jim Dennis, Cheryl by junior Mick Karam, and Barb was escorted by senior Jim Enos. John Rohrs, escorting and crowning Kerry, ended the coronation with a victory kiss. Mark Gregory carried the football with Amy Gruber bearing the crown. The traditional dance followed a homecoming victory and the evening ended with a reception at the queen's house.

"You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown"

Six kids and the backstage crews practiced, prepared, acted and sang together to put on the Thespian spring production of "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown." Few realize all the work that the cast, crews, Mrs. Buhrer and Mrs. Wills put in to this light-hearted musical. The audience obviously enjoyed watching Dave Rhamy as Charlie Brown, Laurie Small as Lucy, Joe Pixler as Schroeder, Melissa O'Kelly as Patti, Joe Sorg as Linus and Bill Heilshorn as Snoopy. This production ended eleven years of fine directing by Mrs. Margaret Buhrer.

While watching "Winnie the Pooh," the audience felt themselves becoming part of this storybook world. The bumbling of Pooh, the nervous carrot crunching of Rabbit and the characterizations of the other cast members created an atmosphere of convincing reality. During rehearsals, the cast members tripped over huge kangaroo tails, struggled with long luscious eyelashes and got sick eating Bit-O-Honeys. This play, under the direction of Mr. David Mabee, toured area schools for a week last spring and ended with a public performance. It proved not only amusing to the audience, but an obvious pleasure to perform.

KING DAVE BAUER AND
SHOWBOAT

Juniors: Tom Wells and Mary Zabinski

Seniors: Vickie Dodson and Mike Leal

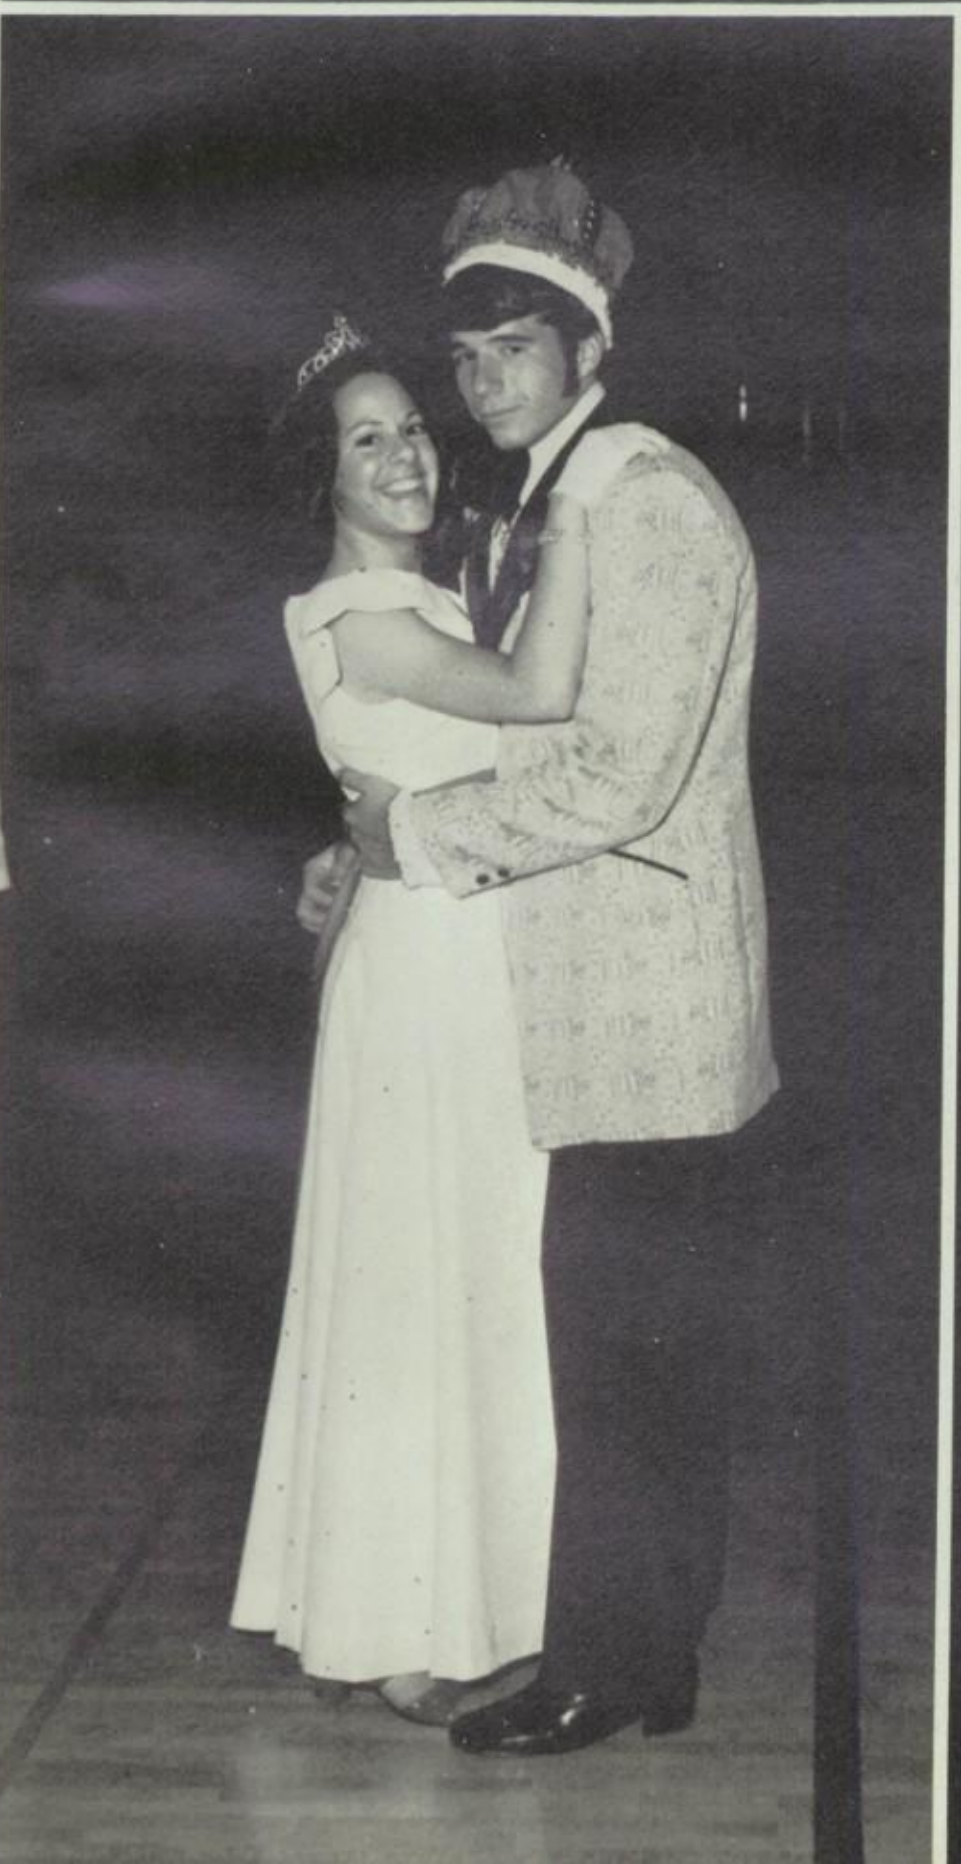

Sophomores: Fred Arce and Barb Small

A desperate search for a dress that either doesn't cut to your navel or fit like a straight jacket, scraping up enough money to rent a tux, dying your shoes the wrong color, the once a year setting of your hair only to have it come out all "afro", opening your boutonniere to find it withered into what looks like a colored onion, and then finally arriving at the dance only to rush back home to get the tickets you forgot — what else could it be but preparation for the May Dance?

"Showboat", the 1973 May Dance, was held on May 5th in the high school gymnasium where the river boat scene came to life. At the coronation Booster President Julie Kehnast crowned Becky Ensign as the 1973 May Queen. The King, Dave Bauer was crowned by Senior Class President Joe Sorg. The court included Seniors Vickie Dodson and Mike Leal, Juniors Mary Zabinski and Tom Wells, and Sophomores Barb Small and Fred Arce. The flower girls were Tammy Wood and Shannon Scott with Ricky Leal and Craig Hendricks as the crown bearers. During the coronation music selections were provided by the choir along with a performance by a group of showboat minstrels. Featured as jazz dancers, Judy Zimmerman, Tina Small, Roberta Diamond, and Beth Leatherman furnished other entertainment. "Montage Brotherhood" supplied the music for dancing. Sponsored by Boosters, the formal dance was followed by a smorgasboard held in the cafeteria.

Exchange Students Enjoy DHS

Exchange students at Defiance High School have experienced many things that are new to them — a wider variety of classes, the thrill of sports, cafeteria food, and making friends in a country that is quite different from which they are accustomed.

Lilli Petersen arrived last August from Aarhus, Denmark to live with the Richard DeWolfe family of Defiance. A member of the DHS Marching and Symphonic Band, she has enjoyed activities such as acting and working with needlepoint. Silvana Walmsley from Recife, Brazil has made her new home with the John Tracy's of Defiance. When Silvana arrived in the last part of January, she not only had to get used to a new country but the cold, snowy weather also. Familiar with big city life, she has enjoyed swimming and reading. Both girls have cherished the various experiences as well as the many new people they have met here at DHS.

Stratford Trippers Enjoy Shakespeare

To spend a weekend in Stratford or not to spend a weekend in Stratford, that is the question. Thirty-seven students and nine chaperones decided to go. On October 13th the group traveled by chartered Greyhound bus to their destination of the Shakespeare Festival, in Stratford, Ontario. After shopping and sight-seeing in Stratford, the group watched professional actors and actresses at the Shakespeare Festival Theatre for the afternoon performance of Othello. Night activities ranged from attending Taming of the Shrew to motel room pillow fights. Following a Sunday brunch the "trippers" visited the theatre park and enjoyed the sculptures of the Rothman Art Gallery. The weekend was completed by a unplanned hill-rolling contest.

Junior-Senior Prom Casino Royale

The Junior-Senior Prom was something to look forward to at the beginning of the school year, if not sooner, even though it's held at the end of May. It was the involved planning, organizing, and decorating by Junior Class students. It was popping countless boxes of popcorn for basketball concessions to raise enough money. The night of the prom was leaving your house at 6:00 p.m. and not returning until 9:00 a.m. the next morning. It was dancing, holding hands, watching a movie and bowling. It was fun.

"Casino Royale," the 1973 Junior-Senior Prom, proved to be just that. Held on May 25th at the Defiance College Student Union, it began with punch and hor'dourves with a buffet following. Numerous casino games, like roulette, black jack, and craps, were played while "Charly" furnished the music for dancing. The James Bond movie, "Casino Royale," was then shown, followed by bowling. The Prom ended with a breakfast served at the college.

Sadie Hawkins

Bales of hay, corn stalks, and pumpkins provided a real barnbustin' atmosphere for the Sadie Hawkins Dance held November 10 in the Defiance High School cafeteria. Despite the lack of German ancestry, with the hillbilly fashion straw hats and rolled up britches, decayed army boots and eyebrow penciled freckles, the music was primarily polka. Sophomores Cindy Burns and Tim O'Neill were crowned Corn Queen and Corn King respectively amid several handfuls of corn. Their court included Tim Brown, Julie Williams, Ann Gump, Brad Thomas, Judy Zimmerman and Kirk Stevenson. Sponsored by Boosters, the combined polka-square dance proved to be a real humdinger for all those who attended.

Scenes from a town square in Ireland to a poor Jewish farm community to a swinging nightclub could be seen at the 1973 choir production, "Best of Broadway." Held on May 11th and 12th, the choir and Boys and Girls Glee presented songs from musical such as Brigadoon, Oliver, South Pacific, and Cabaret.

"Traditions", a song from Fiddler on the Roof was particularly a favorite scene.

George Moss acted as the perfect Jewish farmer, and a folk dance was also performed.

The show ended with a finale of "Climb every Mountain", from The Sound of Music.

Students Present Picnic With Aid of Faculty

A beautiful, insecure girl, a handsome stranger, a tomboy sister, and a mother who had ambitions for her daughter's future added up to make the plot of the Thespian Production "Picnic". The cast spent hours after school in Mr. Mabee's room, learning cues, laughing at dropped lines and trying to learn who their character really was. The crews could be found on Saturdays at the Junior High dragging around huge flats, painting chairs as well as themselves, and trying to get as technically perfect as possible.

The play, which told the story of a beautiful girl who's whole life is changed by one man, featured Melissa O'Kelley as Madge, Mike Searle as Hal, Tina Small as Millie, Margaret Buhner as Flo Owens, Blaise Hoeffel as Alan, Laurie Small as Miss Potts, Sherree Metz as Rosemary, and Mike Burke as Howard.

Seniors Show Strength in Annual Carnival

"Oomph, these 28 people on my back almost feel good."

"Pull harder you guys ... come on, we're losing."
"Oh, the Juniors stink."

These comments and many more could be heard at the 1973 Junior-Senior Carnival. Events ranged from the potato roll to the egg toss, from the sack races to the tug of war and from the embarrassment of having an orange roll down your chest to Mr. Gruber trying to help the Juniors win. The day ended with the Seniors victorious 15-11. Junior Class President Mickey Karram was then pulled unwillingly to the top of Senior Class President Jim Enos' Corvair to receive the traditional loser's pie ... in the face.

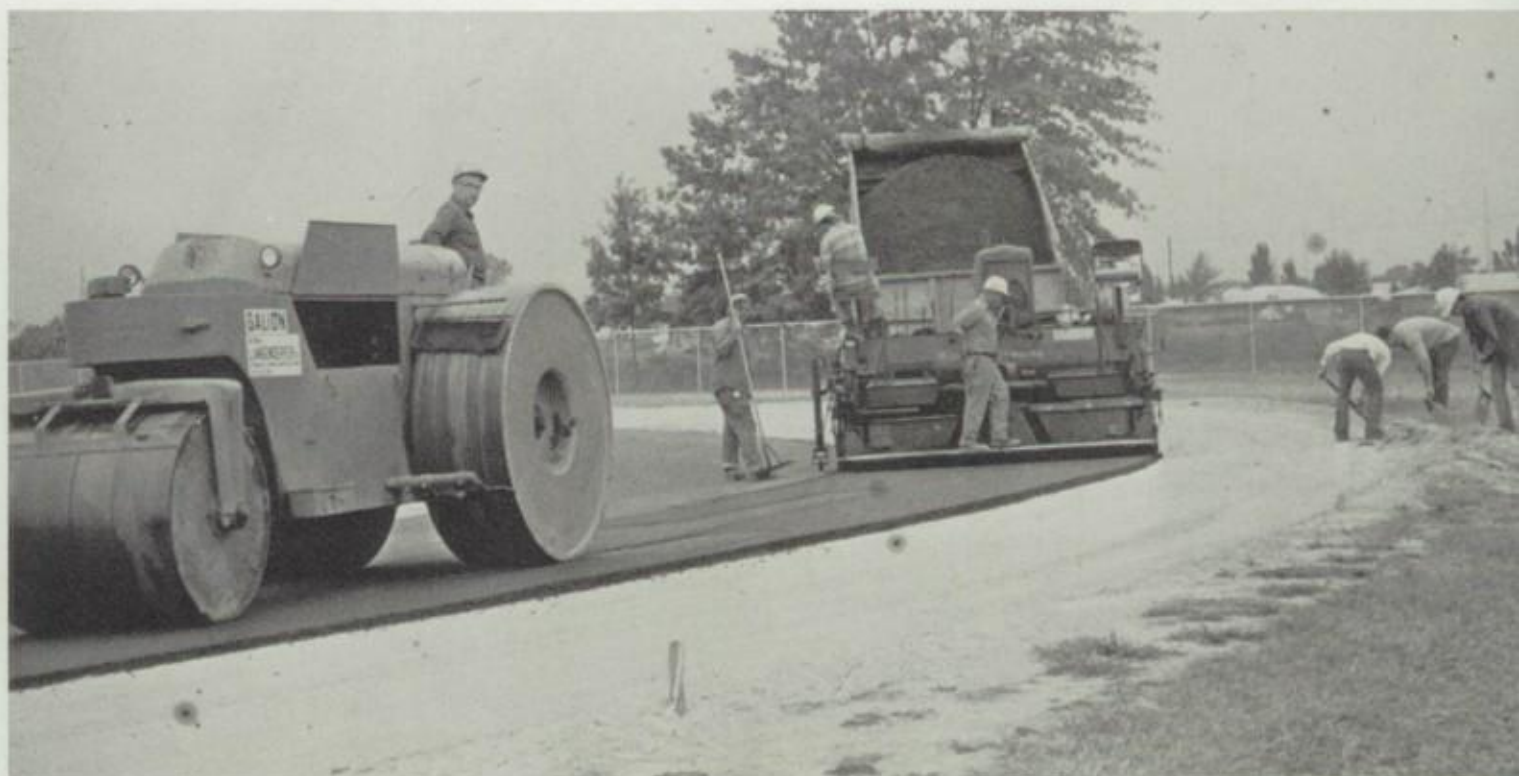

Bob Siler had a lot to laugh about at the annual Junior and Senior Carnival this year, UPPER RIGHT. Maybe the girls' sack race was too much for him, MIDDLE RIGHT, or could it have been Sue Warne stuffing all that pie into her mouth, LOWER RIGHT?

"What will they come up with next?" was evidently running through Charlie Bakle's mind as he rolled that potato another inch, UPPER LEFT. The real power belonged to the seniors in the tug of war, CENTER. Mr. and Mrs. Korthase, LOWER LEFT, had to decide if Vandee Smith and Tom Foor were taking too much time in the orange pass, UPPER RIGHT. "It only hurts for awhile", was the theme for the Junior class pyramid, LOWER RIGHT.

SPORTS

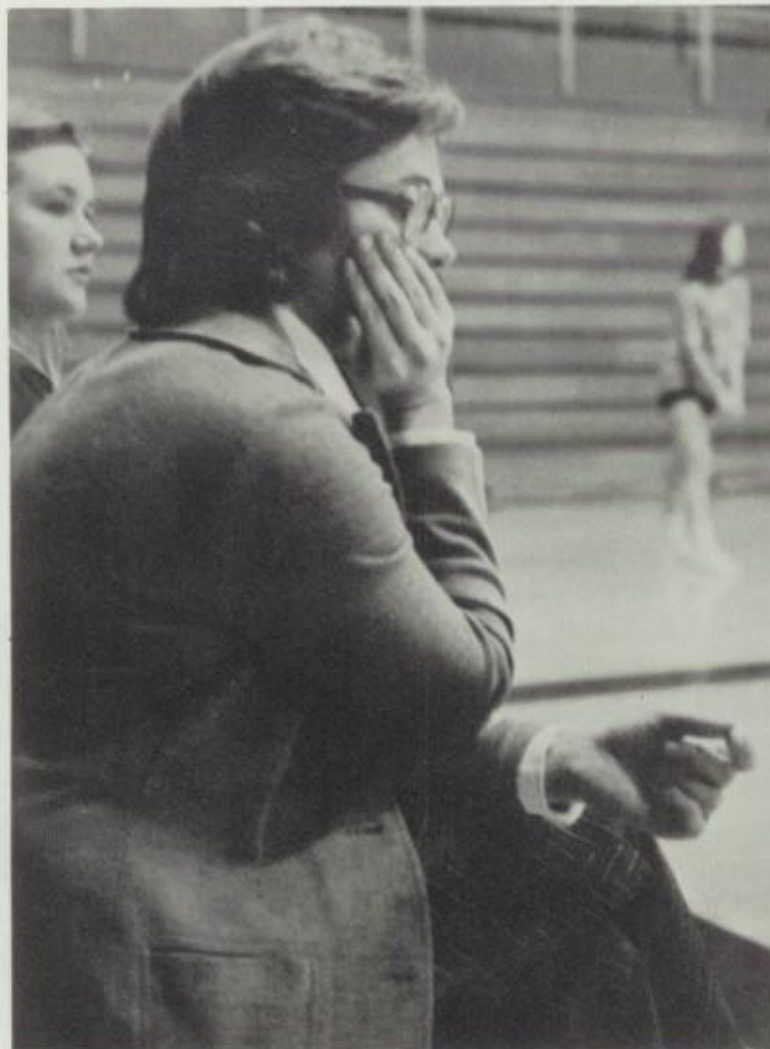

Fred J. Brown Stadium

$150,000, community support, school sacrifice, tons of concrete, and hundreds of aluminum seats, added up to the construction of the impressive Fred J. Brown Stadium. Although the work will not be completed for several years, it is something the people of Defiance can be proud of and also something everyone will benefit from.

GAA Joins WBL

YMCA Provides Intramural Sports for DHS

Third degree floor burns, unbelievable officiating, a dressing room made out of a restroom and the usual wild play were combined by the YMCA basketball league again in the 73-74 season. The league was associated with DHS as an intramural program for the first time this year. All boys who are not in interscholastic competition were eligible, and this year's crop of talent was as exceptional as ever. This year's schedule of games, played on Tuesdays and Wednesdays after school, found the powerhouse Celtics emerge as the league Champions.

Having the 1973 Football Team initiated into the WBL was realizing what league play was really like and knowing that it would be hard to handle. The season consisted of Coach Hughes stressing that you can't make the team in the tub, broken arms, knee surgery, and almost any other injury before mid season. It was listening to Coach Nutter yelling "On two, Jack, on two," and trying to win in the circle of fear and the tunnel of death. Memories were having Dale Parrish barge through the cheerleaders' hoop when he wasn't supposed to, and finally having to realize five seniors would not play their final game, and trying to accept it.

Undefeated Season and WBL Trophy Head Year

The 73 Cross Country team was rather fortunate this year. The appointment of Coach Obie Mouser was one of the key factors, as was the construction of a new cross country course. The Harriers started getting in shape early for the difficult schedule. Practice started Aug. 1 with the use of the Municipal Pool for conditioning. This enabled the Harriers to build up endurance for the new course which included two man-made hills. The cross country team had a fantastic turnout. Sixteen members were divided into a Varsity squad and a JV squad, formed just this year. The team ended their season with a 20-0 record. Hard practice enabled the team to come home with the WBL TROPHY for the 1973 Cross Country season.

A great coach, a great team, and hundreds of fans are a few of the ingredients that made the 1973-74 Basketball season a success. Floorburns, shin splints, blisters, and torn ligaments were a few of the minor fatalities that made the team a tough one. The team was coached by Roger Renz, who has made the Defiance Basketball Team the best since 1961.

LOWER RIGHT, Lee comes back to make a basket by out-jumping his opponents.

Renz Ends '73-'74 Season With 99 Wins

The frustrating 100th game was chalked up as a loss, but every fan knew that Defiance was best. One of the more relaxed moments took place at the Zion's Church where the cheerleaders served a "Breakfast of Champions" the morning of the first game. Being a basketball player was having to run extra laps for being caught outside without a hat, and running suicides for every minute you were late. The best reward of all was ending your Senior year with the WBL Trophy.

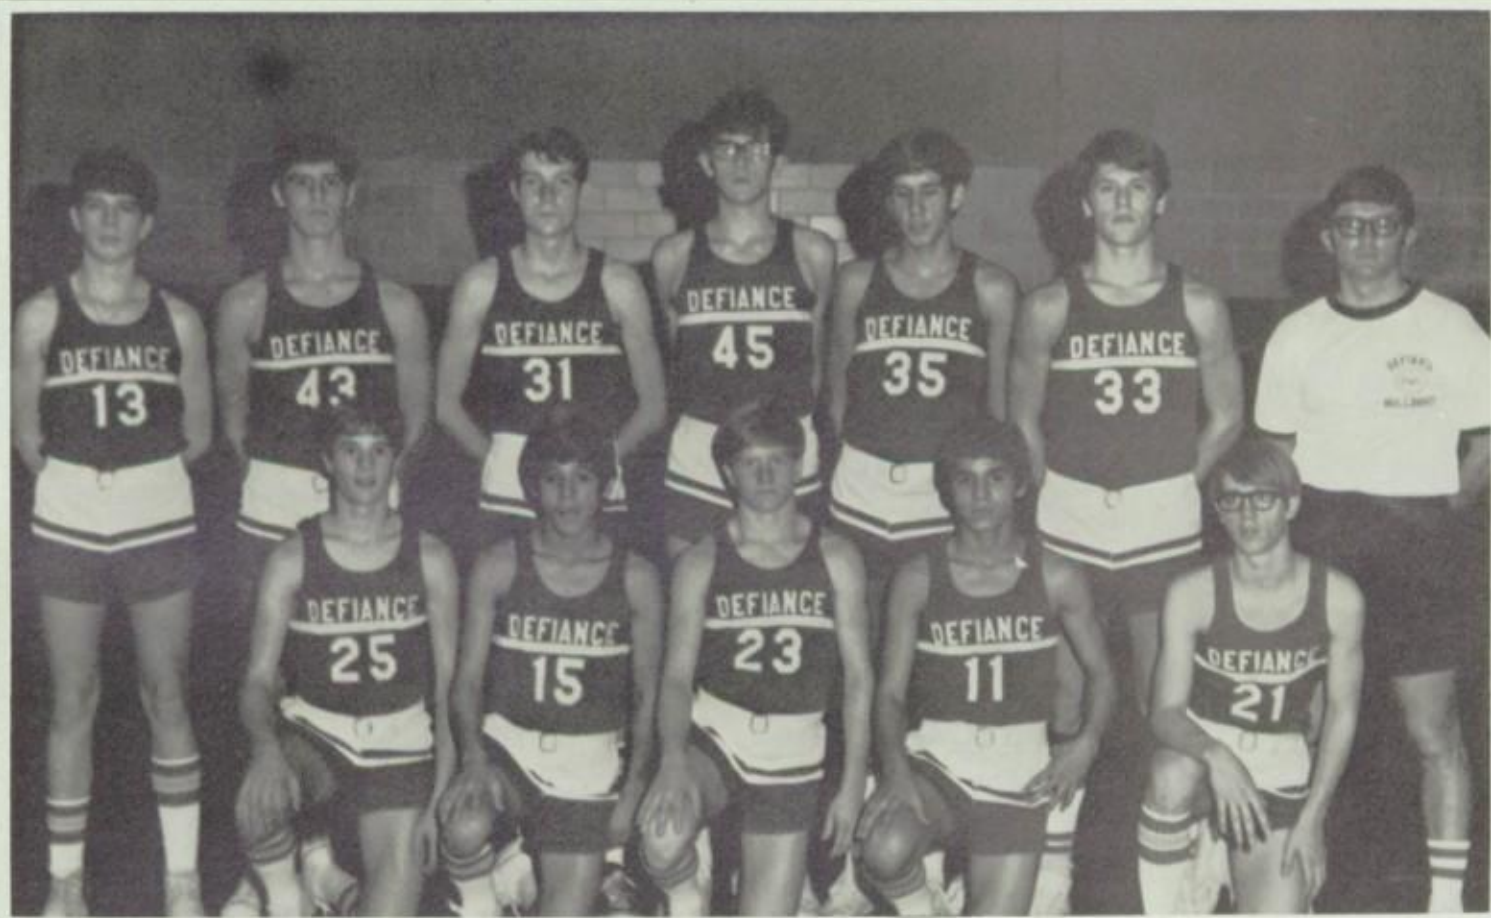

Napoleon players walk away disappointed as Defiance manages to defeat the Wildcats 69-59, UPPER RIGHT. During a warm-up routine before the game, Tom Nendenhall gets ready to pass off the rebound, CENTER LEFT, while Tom Foor, LOWER LEFT, awaits a pass. Sweating, dieting, and drilling were many of the things that the 73-74 wrestling squad had to go through to come out on top to win the WBL title. Off to a slow start, the Bulldogs battled the flu, changes in line-up and over-weight grapplers. The Bulldogs came through and won the Napoleon Gold Medal Tournament and were runners-up in the Sylvania Tourney. Being on the wrestling team was running in hog suits for a couple hours the day before the match to get off the few extra pounds, and taking Ex-Lax five times a week to keep your weight down. Toledo was the site for the weekend festivities for the grapplers at Sectionals. Hustle, sweat, and skill helped the Bulldogs come off the mat with a first in the WBL.

Tennis Team Nets 6-2 Record

Being on the '73 Tennis Team was having to get up at 6:30 for practice every morning and also traveling to Lima's indoor courts until the weather was suitable for playing, but slacking off because the coach lived in Ft. Wayne. Last years' tennis team was coached by Dick Maisenbacher.

Baseball Team Struggles to 5-10 Season

Eating dust at second base, getting slide burns, striking out, laughing with Mr. Frisinger, and a lot of hard work added up to make the 1973 DeLiance High School baseball team. The team practiced, drilled, and practiced more but they fell short of their desires, finishing with a 5-10 record. The team prepared diligently for the state tournament, travelled to Lima, but they were disappointed as Lima Shawnee defeated them 6-0.

Track Team Wins WBL Title

Defiance 123½ — Bryan 23½
 Defiance 123½ — Toledo 23½
 Defiance 84 — Napoleon 46
 First at Napoleon Gold Medals
 WBL — First
 Mansfield Relays — no points
 Second at Greenville Relays
 Second at Sectionals
 District — 12 points
 Fifth at Dayton Wayne Relays
 Third at Lima Shawnee Relays

The '73 Track Team was unlike any other in the WBL this year, for they were the best. This track season was Coach Mouser having to convince the team it was a long way around the track, as well as listening to the team hassle the Coach about his new digital stop watch (he couldn't read the other kind). A few members stayed in the Homecoming Queen's house at the Mansfield Relays where Dave Preston broke seven school records and Mark Koenig added four. The glory of this year's season was being undefeated in dual meets, finishing first at the Napoleon Gold Medals, and most of all, walking away with the 1973 WBL TROPHY.

Although Golf doesn't mean much to the average student, it was a great interest to many at DHS. Our golf team started early in the spring to assure a winning season. Rain, cold weather, and lack of interest from the students were some of the obstacles that the linksmen overcame to win third place in district competition. They haven't proceeded to district for many years. The team concluded a record of 4-3, with the JV's compiling a 2-2 record.

This year cheerleading was an experience of many different things. It was the honor of cheering for basketball and wrestling, and the thrill of being the first to cheer in the new stadium for the football team. It was the red ribboned hair, sore muscles, bruised legs, forever polishing your shoes, and running up one of the most expensive drycleaning bills. It was early morning summer practices to earn a second place at cheerleading camp. It was selling countless license plates and raffle tickets, and painting hoops with unartistic talent. It was trying to smile when you felt like knocking the ref's head off. It was hoping there were enough eggs for the basketball team's Breakfast of Champions, and the monotony of practicing, practicing, practicing. And finally it was laughing, crying, and working together all through the seasons only to have it end then begin again for another year.

National Honor Society Recognizes Outstanding DHS Students

Two points for JCL, an A-average, and a good recommendation by a history teacher are helpful if a Defiance High School student wants to be elected to the National Honor Society.

Unlike most other DHS organizations, NHS's purpose is not to sponsor school activities, but rather to recognize outstanding students in the school.

New members were informed of their acceptance in a tapping ceremony during home-room.

For the first time, NHS sponsored two students, Laurie Small and Sandy Perrine, in national scholarship competition.

Boosters' Spirit

Boosting school spirit was their job and they took it seriously. They spent many long hours on creative posters every Wednesday night. Then Thursday night the posters were hung throughout the school to be ready for Friday morning. The girls also helped the Hi-Y Club decorate for the Homecoming Dance, taping up crepe paper and rearranging the cafeteria after school. Then everyone hustled home to wash their hair and get ready for the dance.

Halloween was celebrated with a party open to everyone; held in studyhall 109, it included the "scarey" movie, "The Vanishing Corpes." During the movie, popcorn and apple cores bounced off people's heads in response to the syrupy love scenes. November 10 was a big day for the Boosters. Early Saturday morning boys from the Hi-Y Club and the Booster decorating committee hauled bales of straw, old fence parts, wooden wheels, and other miscellaneous items into the school cafeteria. That night, as people polked, a Corn King, Queen and court were crowned.

Other activities the Boosters were involved included making scrapbooks and sponsoring the formal March Dance.

Lettermen Encompass More Than Sports

The Varsity D at Defiance High School was often referred to as the secret society comprised of all the top notch jocks. This year it was going Christmas caroling with the girls boosters club, Randy Buchman leading them in prayer, and also convincing the advisors, Coach Renz and Hughes, to let them have a dinner at the end of the year. Varsity D was also hanging out of the new press box just to get a picture in the Panorama, but most of all it was finally wearing your own varsity jacket.

Hi-Y Serves DHS

Selling homecoming tickets weeks before the dance and having to get up early the day after, just to clean up was a big part of what Hi-Y at Defiance was all about. It was also going to Detroit to see a pro-basketball game and helping the Boosters with the Sadie Hawkins Dance, convincing people to invest in a football program, and more seriously sending two representatives, John Rohrs and Phil Mallot to participate in the Ohio-West Virginia Region Youth Government at Columbus.

Red Cross Serves Community

Red Cross Volunteers provided services for the school and people of the community. Being a part of this organization meant contributing much time and effort in the Glennwood Resthome, going to the Defiance Hospital, helping the sick, providing messenger and canteen services for the local blood operations, putting together packages for the servicemen, helping administer free measles vaccine to children, assisting the children's TB testing, participating in the United Fund Program, earning money by bake sales and car wash, and checking hats and coats for the games. Red Cross Volunteers take pride in activities that benefit both their school and community.

DECA Undergoes Many Changes

DECA is a club formed to help the members get jobs that relate to their career plans. The football game at Jim Meek's home made the Halloween party a great success. Students had an interesting evening making wreaths and decorations during their Christmas party, which included a tour of Rupp-Lawson Funeral Home. Between sales of Teddy Bears and Christmas decorations they made a great profit. The bookstore was changed with the addition of posters hung on the walls.

This club was represented to a great extent with Mr. Redington as their new advisor.

Students Are Represented

In trying to be an effective organization, the Student Government decided not to spend each meeting hopelessly arguing for a student lounge or a meager SOS program. Instead, they attempted to accomplish many smaller projects which improved the atmosphere of the school. With cooperation of the administration, the student representatives revised the student handbook and course selection book. Such topics as a picnic area behind the school, bicycle racks, a pop machine for the students, and a student exchange program between area high schools were discussed and planned. The Student Government was responsible for painting and placing the trash barrels throughout the halls as well as the posters in the study hall. Other projects included a clothing drive for the needy and changing the high school marque weekly. Many Student Government members attended work shops which discussed problems that most high schools encounter and strive for better relationships between students and faculty.

Student Government members include; CENTER RIGHT Jury Box: J. Dicke, M. Pardo, J. Joice. FRONT ROW: B. Weisenberger, J. Williams, C. Jacob. Judges Bench: J. Beiswenger, vice-president, B. Gallup, L. Small, president, T. Hageman, treasurer, F. Burger, M. Lenhart, C. Hallard.

Thespians Unveil Talent to Public

Thespian Troupe 2126 is the dramatics club of DHS. Being a Thespian was trying to remember your lines, being able not to stutter, remembering it's only a play, shaking like a leaf, acquiring a membership, initiation at an assembly, presenting Picnic, A Partridge In A Pear Tree, and The Mouse That Roared, producing Fiddler On The Roof with the choir and orchestra, and trying to give a variety of entertainment. This organization tries to promote student participation in dramatic productions.

French Club

French Club Strives for Understanding

Le Cercle de Francais . . . French Club, brought understanding of another people to its members this year through the many activities scheduled. Enjoying French as a second language, learning about different customs, receiving monthly magazines and pamphlets, watching filmstrips at meetings that were announced over the P.A. in French, and caroling in French with the Latin Club are activities that helped members of Le Cercle de Francais know their language on an everyday basis.

Convention Brings JCL Honors

The Junior Classical League was a group of students writing a language that was never spoken in class, dressing up as gods and goddesses, learning what Latin was really about, playing vinco and winning, traveling to Columbus for a convention, seeing two members win a trophy, and knowing you will receive a 90 point average certificate this year. Latin was more than a language; it was much more than that to the members.

Spanish Club Organizes for the Future

Learning a language was more than a classroom experience. It was trying to speak Spanish at the parties, getting the feel of Spanish culture, breaking your first pinata, and re-organizing the club under a new advisor. The feeling radiated by Spanish Club members was one of looking to the future as far as planning activities and gaining an insight into the life styles of Spanish speaking peoples.

Changes Improve GAA

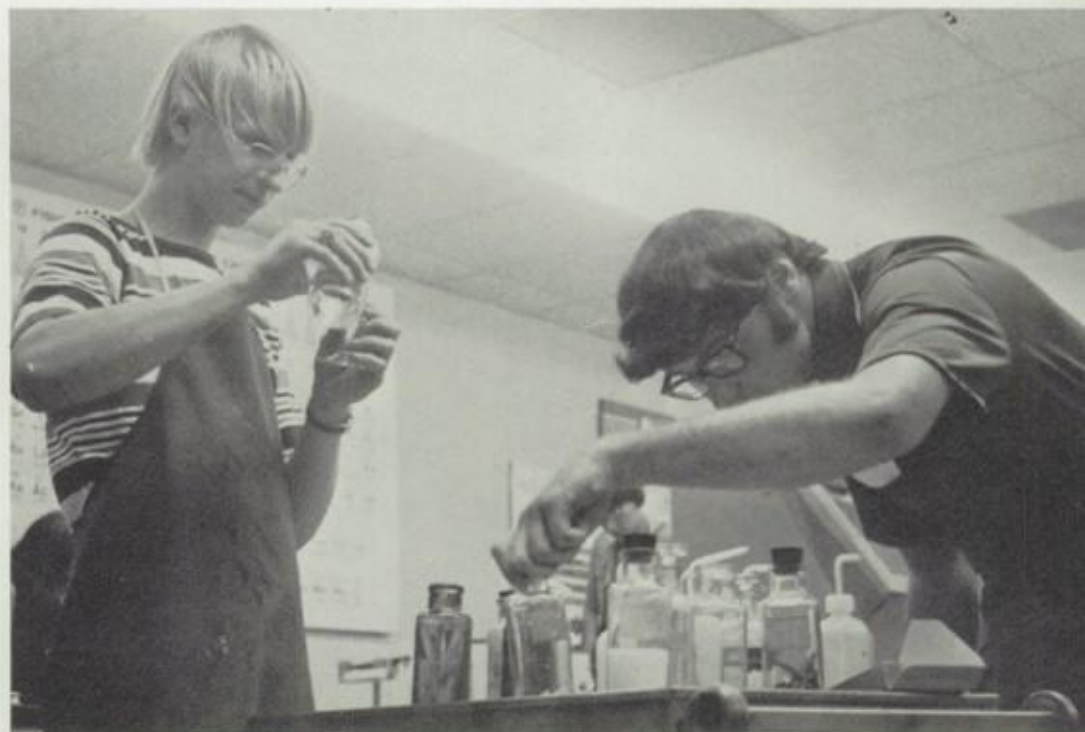

This is the first year the Girls Athletic Association has become part of the Western Buckeye League which brought the GAA closer to the boys athletic association. Being within the association they bought new uniforms for their three main sports: basketball, volleyball and track. They sold two different kinds of shirts to the student body. Becoming part of the League has made the GAA take their sports more seriously. They have improved in their games and scores, but it is also a fun association.

The Science Club was involved in chemistry and physics. This year they increased their knowledge of science by studying through a telescope, exploring the stars, watching filmstrips, taking field trips to satisfy their curiosity about their surroundings, sponsoring an assembly to explain to the school about radiation and atomic energy. This club is trying to gain as much knowledge as possible, and their fascination may help them become this generation's future scientists.

Math Club Provides Tutoring

The Math Club was being able to do math, physics, and chemistry, trying to be patient when tutoring, making a problem work out, and sponsoring The Nation Wide Contest. Trying to out do your advisor in Math, entering the math club contest and hopefully winning, and playing math games were part of the fun. The Math Club was promoting interest and successfully having their members in shape for college.

Future Teachers of America Act As Secret Elves

Membership in the Future Teachers of America meant getting to be a secret elf to a teacher, selling slave day tickets for scholarship awards, learning to realize the work a teacher has, assisting teachers, teaching at a meeting to learn what a faculty job is, taking over a faculty member's class, and having college students come to talk to you about your future as a teacher. These experiences helped each individual prepare for their college and future years.

Library Combines Work and Fun

Running the library takes more than two people, even when the two are as industrious as Mrs. Conrad and Mrs. Allen. Running the library takes a group of people who mix fun with work. Serious tasks that the library assistants undertake include manning the front desk, collecting library cards, and typing up the study hall lists. But the library isn't always a serious place. Avoiding their daily jobs without getting caught, telling jokes so that everyone laughs in front of Mrs. Conrad, and gossiping in the back office are part of the atmosphere created by the fun of working together. The audio-visual guys have to learn a lot about all the equipment, but it pays off. They play big boss when they try to quiet down everyone during movies, they get to see all the scary and mushy films so many times that they memorize all the lines, and they get to run around the halls taking half an hour to deliver a projector. Fun and work combine to form the roles of the library assistants who help keep the hub of DHS running smoothly.

Laying out pages until midnight, trying out new "super-graphics," and learning the hard way what a newsmagazine demands became unforgettable memories for this year's BANNER II staff. The school's monthly feature magazine, the BANNER II was published by the Journalism III students of DHS under Advisor Mrs. Susan Korthase. Members of the BANNER II staff obtained their positions by teacher recommendation, approval of the advisor, completion of the required courses (Journalism I and II), and a letter by the applicant stating the reasons they wished to be on the BANNER staff. Formerly the BANNER, the BANNER II is now a feature newsmagazine, as opposed to straight newspaper coverage. The BANNER II contains not only the news, but features relative to the students and the events of DHS.

Band Hosts Invitational Band Spectacular

Most high schools thought that they had the best band in the United States, but they didn't — we did. And our band proved it. It meant long hours of practice during band camp in August, memorizing new music, practicing new formations, and drinking lots of lemonade to quench their thirst after marching in the sweltering heat. It meant drilling every day after school, even in the rain, perfecting the half-time show for each Friday's football game.

It meant sponsoring the Band Spectacular in September, inviting six other bands to participate in the show at the just-dedicated Fred J. Brown Stadium, and praying that it wouldn't rain (which it didn't). And it meant having all that hard work pay off with an invitation to represent the State of Ohio in the 40th Annual Orange Bowl Parade in Miami, Florida on New Year's Eve, and being selected the number-one band that participated.

This event was by far the highlight of the year — traveling to Miami, performing an open-air concert for the public at Bay Front Park, soaking up a little sun on the glistening sand of the beach, "coaxing" the directors into the water at a private pool party at the Apache Motor Inn, and being featured in the longest parade you have ever marched in, broadcast on national television.

The year was one filled with lots of hard work to make it a success, but any band member will attest to the fact that it was worth every minute.

Majorettes Highlight Band Performances

The past year was a busy one for the nine Defiance majorettes. During the summer they attended a majorette camp at Camp Maple Lake in Indiana, as well as attending band camp in August. When school started, so did performances at parades and football game halftime shows. Practices after school to perfect routines started after regular band practice was over. One of the highlights of the year was the sponsoring of a contest for other majorettes from this area. December saw the majorettes planning entertainment for a Christmas party and the making of red skirts and Santa Claus hats for costuming during Christmas presentations. All this was accomplished with enthusiasm and spirit, partially inspired by their advisor, Miss Kathy Siebenaler.

Color Guard Sports New Uniforms

The past year has seen the color guard of the DHS Marching Band undergo many improvements. Besides tripling the membership to 24, new uniforms were purchased. The newly-added rifle and sword regiment performed in uniforms contrasting the flag corps. Having a larger group to work with, spectacular routines were perfected to harmonize with the band formations. The color guard was truly an important part of the Defiance Bulldog Marching Band of Class.

Being a member of the DHS Concert Choir meant many things to many people. The choir may not have been as prominent and outgoing as some other organizations in the school, but to the 94 or so singers who practiced fourth period every day, choir meant a lot. It meant singing until their throats were sore, and they vowed never to sing another note, yet they came back the next day to do it again. It meant selling chocolate-covered almonds until no one would buy any more so they ate them themselves to keep everyone from saying they didn't do their part and ended up getting sick.

Choir meant absolutely endless practices and rehearsals to try to perfect a new song, resulting in a thrill when performing to an appreciative audience. It also meant going to district contest in March during the worst snowstorm of the year and almost getting stuck in Toledo overnight because the roads were nearly impassable. Choir was a lot of things, but to someone who was really serious about singing, Choir was an important part of their school life.

Orchestra Promotes Music Appreciation

Orchestra was a small but important part of the music department at Defiance High School. Besides performing in several of its own concerts throughout the year, the orchestra also provided the instrumental accompaniment for the annual Christmas show staged by the concert choir on December 20. Elementary school children were treated to an assembly planned by the orchestra. Certainly one of the highlights of the year was the hosting of the Northwest Regional Orchestra in late September. Some of the best instrumentalists from high schools in this area combined talents to perform a public concert which drew a large audience. Under the direction of Mr. Otto Warkentin, the orchestra has been an asset to DHS's music program.

With six hours of studying, listening, and working, both students and teachers need to break away from all the monotony. The cafeteria serves as a place to have lunch as well as a place to forget about the last test you just flunked or the point Mr. Burson gave you that morning for not signing in.

After the 11:40 bell rings, the empty halls become crowded with people racing to the cafeteria to be the first in line.

Vocational Students Prepare for Future

Riding the bus for miles twice a day, getting used to a new building, new friends, and a new routine. These are a few of the things a student encounters while attending Four County Vocational School. Here, students prepare for their future by spending the last two years of their high school career learning a trade they are interested in. Also maintaining the privileges to participate in DHS school activities, the Vocational students make school more meaningful and profitable to themselves.

A large, dark tree with a bright light source behind it, creating a silhouette effect against a light sky. The tree's branches are intricate and spread out, with the light source positioned low and to the left, casting a glow through the foliage. The sky is a pale, uniform color, and the overall mood is contemplative and serene.

my name, my place, and my tomb, all forgotten,
the brief race of time well and patiently run,
so let me pass away, peacefully, silently,
only remembered by what I have done.

Bonar.

Power

Dr. Richard L. Preston served his second year as the Administrative Head of the Defiance Public Schools. His duties included supervising vital school affairs and hiring new teachers.

The School Board, headed by Mr. Frank Lorenz, has many important functions, among which are making executive decisions for the school throughout Defiance, establishing school policy, and answering to the public for the types of decisions made. Assisting the administrative heads were Mrs. Hazel Eberle, Mrs. Ruby Hammersmith, and Mrs. Jill Goeller.

Helpers

Solving the many problems that occur daily at DHS are Mr. Ramon Marshall and Mr. Rex Burke, along with Mrs. Betty Pickering, who manages the paper work.

Also helping the students is the Guidance Department, solving such problems as changes in scheduling and student-faculty relationships.

They also assist the students in their future plans. Guidance department clerical tasks are handled by Mrs. Sue Tracy.

Foundations

English is the basis for any future study and the DHS English department has a great variety of courses to fulfill the needs of the students. The program includes 38 mini-courses ranging from Technical Theater to Survival English.

Carefully-made doodles, jamming typewriters, and interest rates; this is what the Business Department meant to many DHS students. Looking down at the typewriter keys was easily done ... until the lights were turned off. If it wasn't typing, it was discovering that it took two years of bookkeeping to realize you didn't know how to subtract yet. Learning how to save money was hard enough, but then finding out how to invest it in Econ class was quite another thing. These students prepared for the future, along with the DECA students, who took their knowledge and skills with them everyday into the business-oriented world.

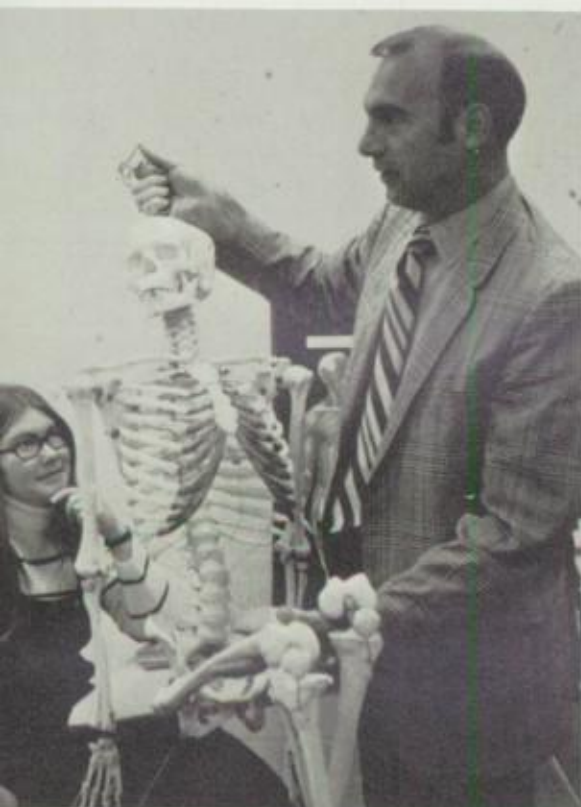

Business

Science at Defiance High School was different during 1974. It was fruit fly fights in Biology I, caterpillar races in Physics, and it was having a cerebral hemorrhage over Physiology tests. Lab noise was always fun, level two was always hard, and finding those little pond creatures eyestraining. Science was something different for every DHS student.

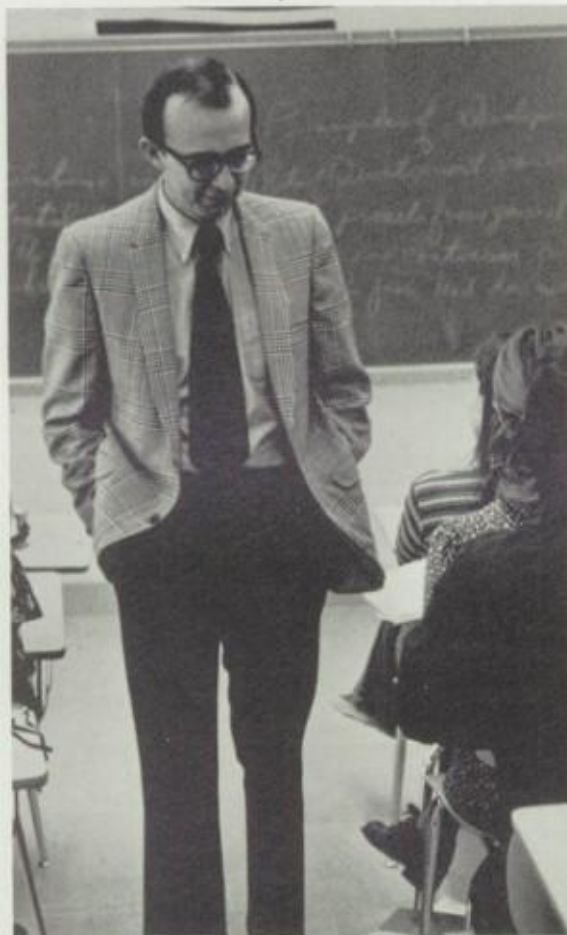

Discovery

Humanities

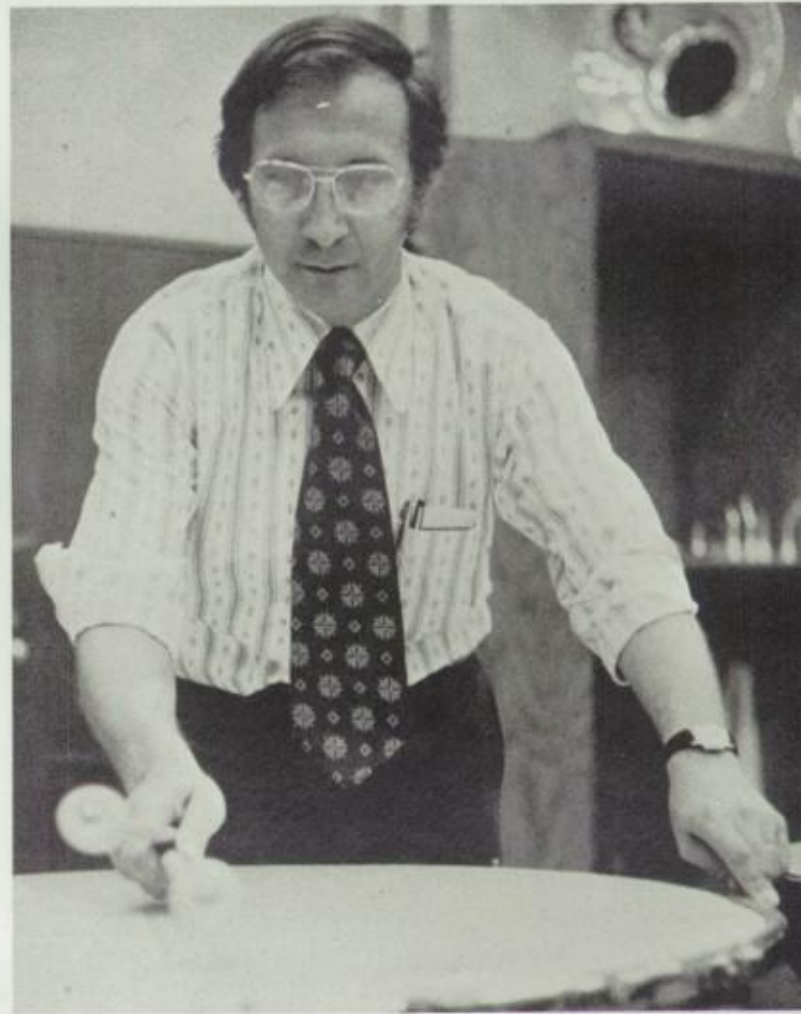

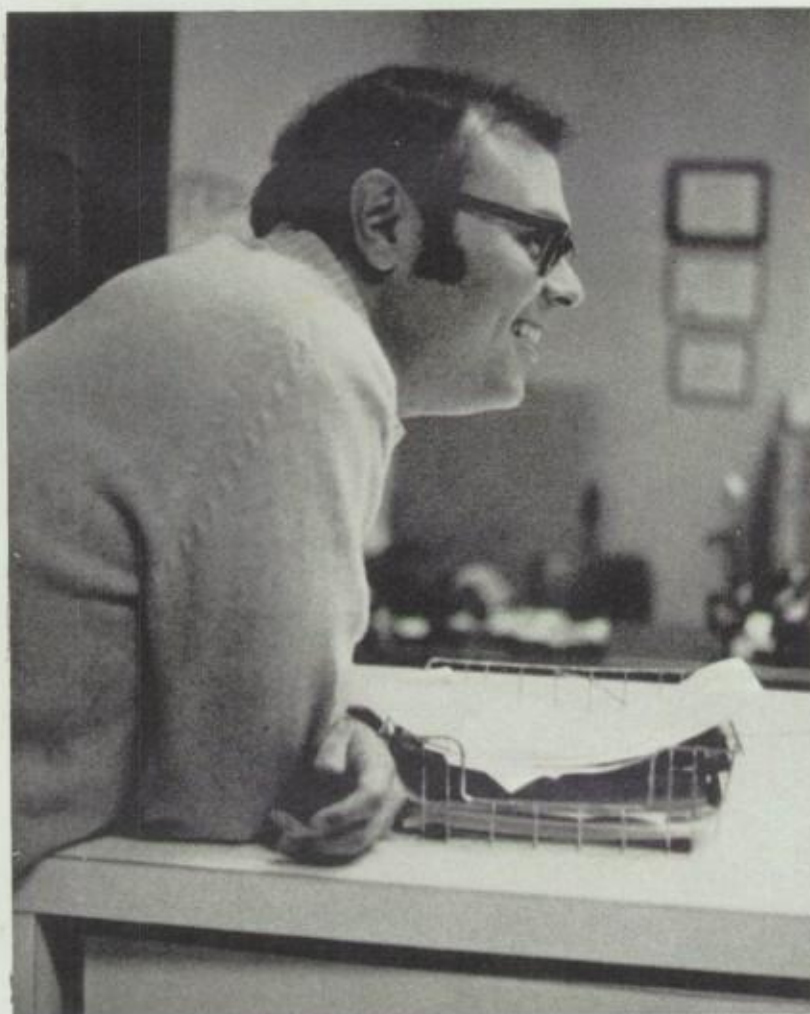

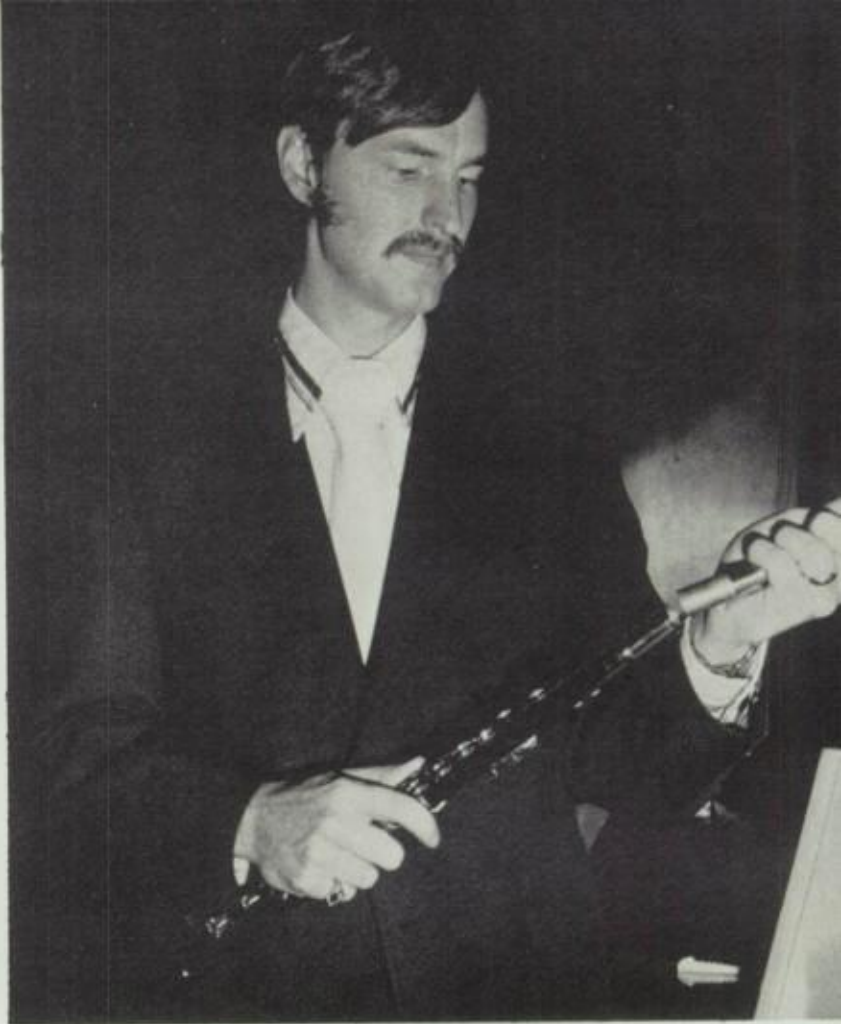

Social Studies is heated debates between Mr. Mouser's and Mr. Renz's classes on current events, sitting through Sociology and wondering what this world is coming to, having Mr. Costello explain the Civil War but not understanding its worth, listening to Mr. Nutter lecture on the good times but wondering about the bad, and thinking the world is flat, but having Mr. Ebersole argue it's round.

UPPER RIGHT, Mr. Mike Costello, History;
LOWER LEFT, Mr. Daniel Nutter, History.

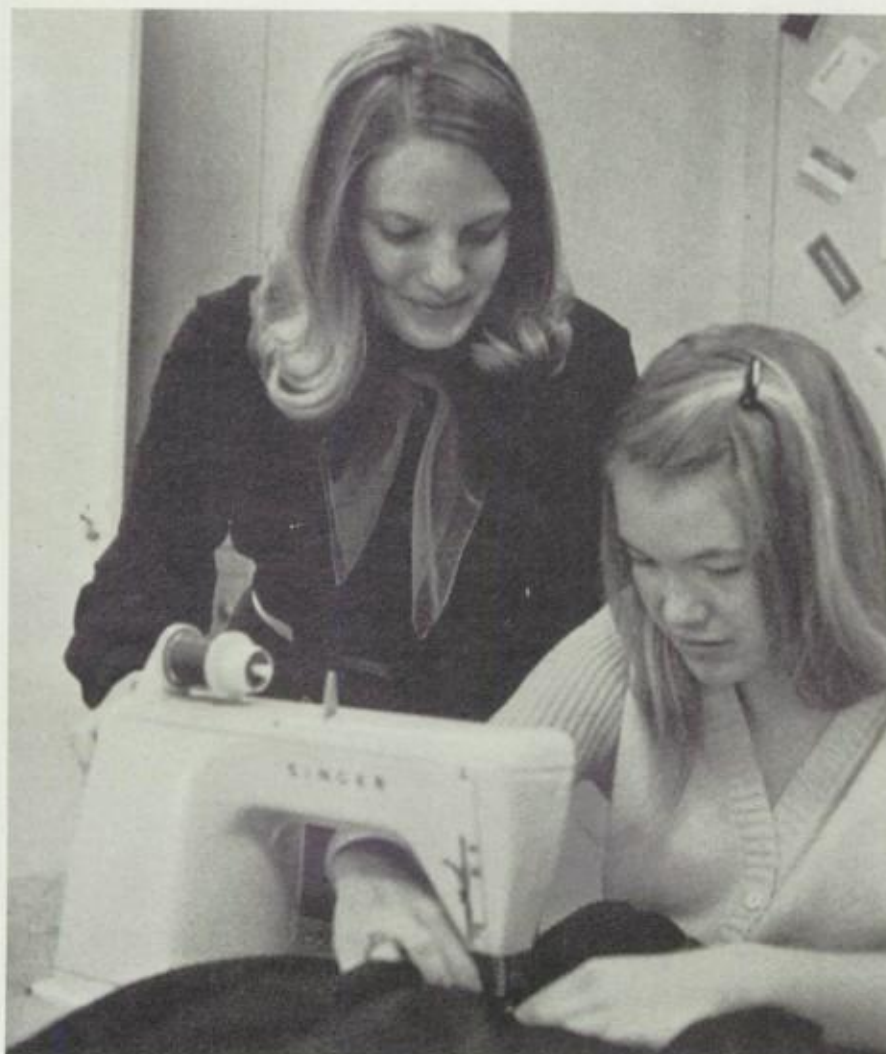

Sounds

Going to the Orange Bowl, polishing your tuba, joking around with Mr. Polce, getting yelled at by Mr. Brooke for hitting a flat note and being disappointed by the small crowd at an orchestra concert are some of the small things that make our music department what it is. But the most important characteristics are the hours of practice put in and the amount of recognition received.

Applied Arts

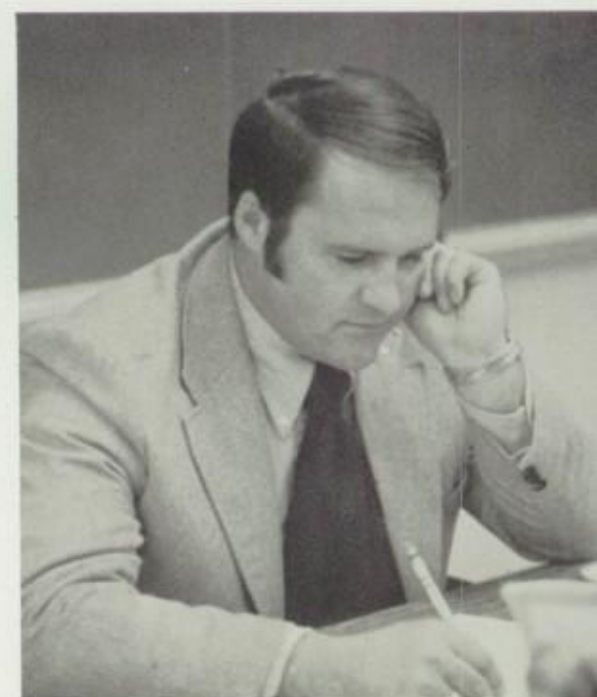

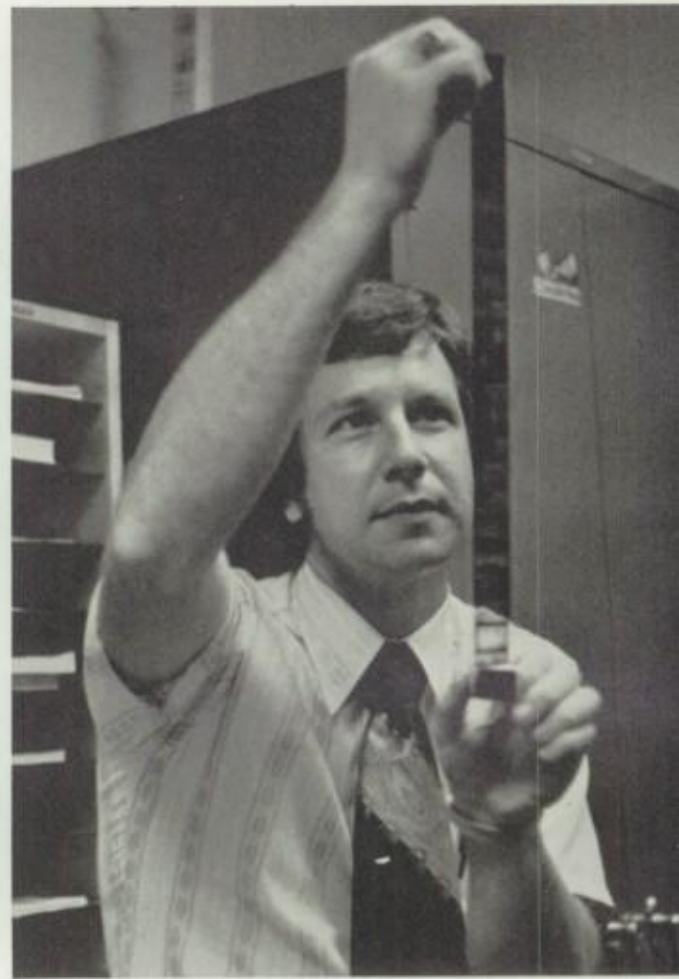

Shop, Art, and Home Economics are thought of by some people as just snap courses for students who have an extra period. But to most of the kids in these courses they mean a lot more. The Industrial Arts department prepares boys who aren't going to college to go out after high school and find a job. Home Economics teaches girls and boys (Bachelor's Home Economics) in the basic skills of cooking, sewing, and other necessary tasks involved in a home. A creative outlet for students and preparation for college is provided by the art department.

Symbols

It's hard to get the abstract concepts of language and math across to students, but it's done well daily at Defiance High School. Mr. Dowler, Mr. Burton, and Mr. Frederick lay on heavy assignments, but it's all worth it when the scholarship team places first in state competition. Mr. Schafer and Mr. Munn demand that only their language be spoken in class, but when fluency is reached it seems like nothing.

Educational Aids

The people on this page have made high school easier for a lot of students. Mr. Robert Rex and Mr. Roger Rankin, EMR coordinator, run the Special Education Program at Defiance with much patience and understanding. Mrs. Davon Heller is in charge of the "in-school-suspension program." The D.H.S. library, headed by Mrs. Elinor Conrad and Mrs. MaryJane Allen, gives students a chance to escape study halls. The gym provides another kind of escape for students. It's a place where students can relax and enjoy themselves. Physical Education, taught by Mrs. Penny Wills and Mr. Bill Hughes, was divided into minicourses this year.

Cooks

With today's high food costs, the cooks have a hard time preparing meals with good nutritional value at a reasonable cost. Nevertheless, each day, students and faculty are provided with a "Type-A" lunch. In addition to regular lunches, the a la carte line offers a change of pace.

Custodians

Maintaining the building and grounds of DHS is a bigger job that most people realize. With a staff of only eight men and women, keeping the building clean and in running order is a round-the-clock job.

Presenting the year for all the students is a difficult but highly rewarding task. In attempting to show how the conflict within ourselves and our school strengthens our individuality, the PANORAMA staff faced many conflicts on its own. To represent as many of the students as possible, it was necessary to seek out other points of view — to keep our feelings in perspective with others.

As each school conflict or problem arose, we duly over-reacted, felt sure the world could end, knew this event must have top coverage, and then cooled down enough to keep everything in perspective. Life is not rosy — we cried, we laughed, we broke our hearts, and we plunged on. The yearbook is also not a rosy picture, but neither is it a gloomy one. The events and people included are presented as they were, to prompt your memories and help you relive the past. To help you laugh, think, cry, and realize that the conflicts you've faced this year have made you the better person you are, and this school the better school it is.

... This is you ... this is Defiance High School.
